This weekend's second collection is for South American & Latin American Missions & Overseas Relief

The Scriptures today remind us that "we, many though we are, are one body for we all partake of the one loaf." How are we using our gifts of time and talent to build up the body of Christ?

FOURTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Zechariah 9, 9-10

This is a prophecy of the coming of the Messiah to Jerusalem. He will come, not as a King, but as a humble savior.

Second Reading: Romans 8, 9, 11-13

Contrasting "flesh and spirit," Paul urges that all who live rise to life in the "Spirit."

Gospel: Matthew 11, 25-30

Jesus speaks lovingly and gently when he invites all those who are weary and burdened with life to seek relief and repose in him. He says, "Your souls will find rest, for my yoke is easy and my burden light."

PASTOR SECTION

The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ
Corpus Christi

On this feast of Corpus Christi, we remember that all gifts come from God. We celebrate the gifts of God's Word in Scripture and the power of the Sacraments especially Christ's presence in the Eucharist. We believe in God's Spirit who heals, strengthens and encourages us to live as faithful stewards.

A Letter To All

Dear Companions On The Journey,

Once in a Church in China, a missionary asked a class of children the question, "If you could be anyone in the Bible, who would you like to be?" One girl responded, "Ruth," another "Mary, our Blessed Mother." One boy shouted, "King Solomon," another "St. Paul." Jumping to her feet, a tiny girl cried out, "I want to be Lo!" Puzzled, not recalling anyone named "Lo," the minister asked, "To what Biblical passage do you refer?" The girl proudly quoted Matthew 28:20. "Lo, I am with you always." Of course, there is no Biblical person named "Lo." Yet, in a spiritual sense, each one of us is "Lo" because Jesus promises, "Lo, I am with you always."

On the weekend of my installation, as Pastor, in August, 1996, I wrote the story of "Lo" in our Parish Bulletin. I penned that "these words of Jesus give me comfort." Now on the occasion of my leaving St. Pius X, Christ continues to offer comfort.

Bishop Serratelli has given me a new assignment effective July 1st as a full-time student, in post-graduate work.

During these 15 years, we remember sharing "the magnificent enterprise that is God's work" (Archbishop Oscar Romero). We celebrate the sorrows and joys that we have experienced in Christ's abiding presence. We believe that the Lord is with us always.

I am profoundly thankful to God, for you, who have been faithful stewards and loving companions on our journey from God's Glory to Glory. God is providing us with Keys to the Kingdom "beyond anything that we could ever hope for or imagine." (Ephesians 3:20)

My heart will be with you always in grateful prayer. May the Lord Grant Us Peace, Dona Nobis Pacem.

Yours in faith,

Rev. Joseph J. Garbarino
Pastor

Music Ministry

As we break for summer vacations, I would like to thank the entire Music Ministry for a wonderful year. Our Parish Choir has provided us with beautiful music every Sunday since last September as well as an exhilarating Christmas Concert. Our Cantors are outstanding singers, and more importantly, are dedicated to their Faith and our Church.

Our School Music Ministry is strong with a School Choir of over 40 students, and two Handbell Choirs with 20 students. We have more School Cantors than ever, and their love of our Church and school is overwhelming! Thank you to the faculty of St. Pius X School for support, as well as Sister June for her support of this vital Ministry.

Most of all, thank you to Father Joe for his passionate love of music and liturgy and word, and for enabling me to grow with this wonderful Parish in musical prayer!

Thank you, Stephen Powers

Father Joe

Antonio Stradivari was a seventeenth-century violin maker whose name in its Latin form, Stradivarius, has become synonymous with excellence. He once said that to make a violin less than his best would be to rob God, who could not make Antonio Stradivari's violins without Antonio.

He was right. God could not make Stradivarius violins without Antonio Stradivari. Certain gifts were given to that craftsman that no other violin maker possessed.

In the same vein, there are certain things you can do that no one else can. Perhaps it is parenting, or constructing houses, or encouraging the discouraged. There are things that only you can do, and you are alive to do them. In the great orchestra we call life, you have an instrument and a song, and you owe it to God to play them both sublimely.

Father Joe, your instrument is your words and we are richer for the song you have played. You have played sublimely, with courage and love. We will carry the song forever in our hearts.
