BIBLE STUDY

Unlocking The Mystery Of The Bible

This study provides the easiest way to understand the Bible. It helps uncover the story woven throughout Scripture so that you can get the big picture of the Bible and understand what it is all about. The Bible is a story of the Father's unfailing love for you—a love that you are now called to share with others. Make sense of the Bible and see how it relates to your everyday life. Discover the remarkable connections between the Old and New Testaments. See how the Sacraments, the Church and our entire Catholic Faith are rooted in Scripture. More info to follow on how to sign up for Bible Study Class on Ascension Press. Save the date: First class is Tuesday, September 20th, 7 pm at the Ministry House.

Happy Independence Day

On Independence Day each year, we gather with family and friends to commemorate the anniversary of the signing of our Declaration of Independence. With vision and courage, our Founders stated unequivocally to the world: "We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable rights that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness." These were literally revolutionary concepts, and they fundamentally changed the course of human history.

Today we are living through another period of profound and historic change: change in the way we work, the way we live, the way we relate to one another and to the rest of the world. But the truths set down in our Declaration of Independence are immutable, and they continue to light our path into the challenges and possibilities of the future. Equality, individual rights, life, freedom, opportunity: we still cherish these values, and we must continue to reaffirm them daily.

America is still a work in progress, and we have strived through decades of challenge and change to become what our Founders envisioned on our First Independence Day.

*Peace & Blessings,
Fr. Mark*

Prayer For Independence Day

Father all powerful and ever living God, we do well always and everywhere to give you praise and to give you thanks in all we do through Jesus Christ with the help of the Holy Spirit.

Jesus spoke a message of peace and taught us to live as brothers and sisters. His message took form in the vision for our founders as they fashioned a nation where all might live as one. This message lives on in our midst as a task for us today and a promise for tomorrow.

We thank you, Father, for your blessings in the past and for all that, with your help, we must yet achieve. And so with hearts full of love, we rededicate ourselves to your service and to the works of justice and freedom for all. May we become instruments of peace and channels of your wisdom. As you have called us from many people to be one nation, help us to give witness in our lives, and in our life as a nation, to the rich diversity of your gifts.

We ask this through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

"We are Catholics. We are Americans. We are proud to be both, grateful for the gift of faith which is ours as Christian disciples, and grateful for the gift of liberty which is ours as American citizens. To be Catholic and American should mean not having to choose one over the other. Our allegiances are distinct, but they need not be contradictory, and should instead be complementary. That is the teaching of our Catholic faith, which obliges us to work together with fellow citizens for the common good of all who live in this land. That is the vision of our founding and our Constitution, which guarantees citizens of all religious faiths the right to contribute to our common life together."

Our First, Most Cherished Liberty: A Statement On Religious Liberty, USSCB

Prayer for the Protection of Religious Liberty

*O God our Creator,
from your provident hand we have received
our right to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness.
You have called us as your people and given us
the right and the duty to worship you, the only true God,
and your Son, Jesus Christ.
Through the power and working of your Holy Spirit,
you call us to live out our faith in the midst of the world,
bringing the light and the saving truth of the Gospel
to every corner of society.*

*We ask you to bless us
in our vigilance for the gift of religious liberty.
Give us the strength of mind and heart
to readily defend our freedoms
when they are threatened;
give us courage in making our voices heard on behalf of the rights of your Church and the freedom of conscience of all people of faith.*

*Grant, we pray, O heavenly Father, a clear and united voice to all your sons and daughters gathered in your Church
in this decisive hour in the history of our nation,
so that, with every trial withstood
and every danger overcome—
for the sake of our children, our grandchildren,
and all who come after us—
this great land will always be "one nation, under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all."
We ask this through Christ our Lord.
Amen.*

The Unique Joy Of Summer

It is summertime and the "living is lazy." Who doesn't enjoy a free day or days to do something special? We visit relatives and friends to enjoy one another and to be refreshed by those who love us. The days also give us time to talk with a neighbor or make new friends. Summer gives us time. Nightfall even comes later than usual. Time is on our side.

Summertime is also a time to grow in faith. Often we are able to attend Mass and not worry about where we have to be. We thank God for the light of faith and for the strength that faith brings into our lives.

With the warmth of the bright sunlight and glorious sunsets or the quiet of Mass, summer is a perfect time to stop and thank God for his countless blessings in our lives.
